

NEWS QUIZ

IN THE KNOW

PART A: WORDS

- A1 What has just reappeared near the Irish village of Dooagh?
- A2 Which charity has just published five recommendations for the Government to act on, as part of Mental Health Awareness Week (Monday 8 May – Sunday 14 May)?
- A3 What damage can busy shipping lanes cause to seals, according to new research by Dr Esther Jones from the University of St Andrews in Scotland?
- A4 Why is Eliud Kipchoge in the news?
- A5 Why are campaigners worried that a 100,000-signature petition in support of mental health lessons in schools will not get a debate in Parliament?
- A6 The mayor of the village of Bormida is offering €2,000 (£1,700) and cheap rent to anyone who wants to move there. In which country?
- A7 A Syrian couple have named their baby son after a Prime Minister. Which one?
- A8 What is 'GW501516'?
- A9 Name a judge on the 'RSPCA Young Photographer Awards'.
- A10 These kind of clocks can display positions of the sun, moon, zodiacal constellations, and sometimes major planets. What is the name for these clocks, and which one is featured in this week's news?

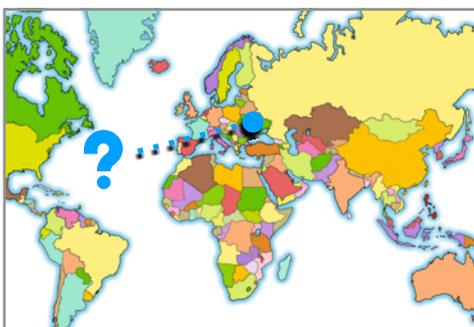

PART B: PICTURES

What news do these pictures tell us this week?

B1	B2
B3	B4
B5 Facebook/New Zealand Police	B6

PART C: PLACES

The Eurovision Song Contest is taking place on 13 May. Where in the world?

PART D: PERSON

Who is this person and why is he in the news this week?

PART E: OBJECT

What is this object and why is it in the news?

PART F: STATISTICS

What news do these numbers tell us this week?

F1 £16.2bn	F2 34,500 tickets so far	F3 -12
F4 60%	F5 12% of greenhouse gases	F6 66.06% of the votes

? WEEKLY NEWS QUIZ

L3 Part A: Words - Answers

- A1 A beach, which had been destroyed by storms in 1984, and then the sand was washed back up in a freak tide. 13. 'Beach Mystery', Quick News, page 2
- A2 'YoungMinds'. 'Mental Health Manifesto', Big News, page 3
- A3 The underwater noise from the ships can temporarily deafen the seals. 'Sad news for seals', Animal News, page 10
- A4 He tried to achieve a sub-two-hour marathon, and he missed out by just 25 seconds! 15. 'Marathon Mission', Quick News, page 2
- A5 Due to the dissolution (break-up) of Parliament at the present time because a General Election has been called. 5. 'Mental Health', Quick News, page 2
- A6 Italy. 'Live in our village!', World News, page 8
- A7 Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau. 4. 'Trudeau Inspo', Quick News, page 2
- A8 It's a new tablet drug which has been created by scientists to replicate the benefits of doing exercise (in mice, at least)! Did You Know? Science News, page 7
- A9 Chris Packham. 19. 'Camera Contest', Quick News, page 2
- A10 The astronomical clock at Hampton Court Palace. London, England, The Week's News In Pictures, page 5

PART B – The Pictures

- B1 Owners of dog breeds, such as pugs and French bulldogs, are being warned that their pets are more likely to suffer from heatstroke this summer, since these brachycephalic (flat-faced) breeds can't sweat, so don't cool down as well as other dogs. 'Help These Poor Pups', Big News, page 4
- B2 Dorothy Hodgkin, born on 12 May 1910, discovered the structure of penicillin. 'Dorothy's Legacy', Science News, page 7
- B3 Five World Team Cups have been won by Great Britain's quad wheelchair tennis team. Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28
- B4 This artwork is part of a 'Remember Me' event held every year at Hereford's art centre, The Courtyard, for 'Dementia Awareness Week' (15 – 21 May). 'Learning About Dementia', Special Report, page 9
- B5 'Constable' Elliot the guinea pig is being used by New Zealand Police to remind people about the importance of safe driving. 'Guinea Pig On Patrol', Animal News, page 10
- B6 More than 80 schoolgirls, who had been kidnapped by the terrorist group Boko Haram over two years ago, have been released. The group still holds girls captive, as a protest against girls being educated. '82 Chibok girls come home', Big News, page 4

Part C: Places

The Eurovision Song Contest is taking place on 13 May. Where in the world? Kiev, Ukraine. 1. 'Eurovision', Quick News, page 2

Part D: Person

Who is this person and why is he in the news this week? It's James Taylor, former professional cricketer, who is now working with the children's charity 'Chance To Shine' and promoting cricket in schools. 'Giving It Your All!', Big Interview, page 18

Part E: Object

What is this object and why is it in the news? It's the US military's X-37B space plane, and it has just completed a classified mission that has lasted two years. 'Secret space plane', USA, World News, page 8

Part F: Statistics

What news do these numbers tell us this week?

- F1 £16.2bn – is the worth of the richest people in the UK. They are brothers named Sri and Gopi Hinduja. 11. 'Rich List', Quick News, page 2
- F2 34,500 tickets so far – have been sold for the '2017 Women's FA Cup Final' at Wembley. Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28
- F3 -12 – was the goal difference that led to Blackburn Rovers being relegated from the Championship. Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28
- F4 60% – of corals worldwide have experienced bleaching, which is happening due to global warming. However, new research by the Wildlife Conservation Society (WCS) has found that some species of coral are learning to adapt to the warming climate. 'Coral stays cool', Animal News, page 10
- F5 12% of greenhouse gases – which cause global warming and climate change, come from the global meat industry. 'Insects on the menu?', Science News, page 7
- F6 66.06% of the votes – or two thirds, led to Emmanuel Macron being elected the new President of France. 'New French President', Big News, page 3